FINE DESIGNS TO BE APPAREL VENDOR FOR 2012-2013 OAC EVENTS

Sandusky, OH – July 23, 2012 – The Ohio Athletic Committee (OAC), announces an exclusive sponsorship & apparel agreement with Fine Designs Sportswear. The non-profit organization conducts youth wrestling, football and cheerleading events in Ohio. Two of the events are the most prestigious events for youth wrestlers; the Grade School and Junior High State Championships. The partnership grants Fine Designs the rights to 50+ OAC events as well as exclusive rights to distribute apparel and equipment.

The agreement will connect Fine Designs Sportswear to the more than 12,000 OAC youth participants. “We are excited to provide a hassle free, enjoyable experience, providing cool and memorable products for everyone.” says Fine Designs President, Alex Kovalsky.

Fine Designs Sportswear is a sponsor of indoor and outdoor clubs, organizations and events. Events range from sporting events to art festivals. “Our service is not just our job, we invest into things that matter, things that will make a difference” mentions Kovalsky. Fine Designs, inspires and sponsors organizers to continue their involvement in children’s lives. Through generous contributions to the event financially and through services, Fine Designs Sportswear provides stable support for the activities conducted.

2013 will mark OAC’s 15th year of hosting the toughest and largest youth wrestling tournament series in Ohio. This season they will host its 4th Annual Cheerleading and Youth Football State Championships. Over the last 5 years the OAC has awarded more than $39,000 in college scholarships. The OAC Mission Statement sums it up, “Provide opportunities for young athletes to advance their skills and reach their full potential through participation in our premier championship events.” For more information on OAC visit www.ohioathletics.com
